

Around
the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

Even the younger set is het up about the election, arguing the merits of Messrs. Kennedy or Nixon and arbitrarily collecting stickers, etc. ("I'll trade ya' two Nixon-Lodge for a Kennedy-Johnson").

Between headquarters, the other afternoon, a lone boy (clutching a parcel of Democratic paraphernalia) passed a group of his contemporaries (bearing Republican banners).

"Hey," asked one of the group, "are those Nixon stickers?"

"No," said the boy, "I'm for Kennedy," which brought on a chorus of hoots:

"Man, you need help!"

"Yeah! You're sick—you need a psychiatrist," etc. etc.

Time was when a situation like this might have led to fistfights, not references to mental health.

WHILE on the adult level, a nameless voice which claims to be with some "National Precinct Survey" is making telephone calls and asking people how they're going to vote in the Presidential election.

But you don't have to tell them—it's none of their business.

SHARP SALUTE. Happy fiftieth wedding anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sharp who have lived 40 of their golden years in Sierra Madre. They now reside at 264 East Highland, with daughter, Martha, Mr. Sharp (now retired and doing some fine furniture refinishing in his spare time) is a former editor and publisher of papers in Missouri.

COMPLAINT DEPT. Is there anyone around the Square without a sore throat, catarrh, a dropped nose or rheumy eyes? However, one way to make sure that you really are still living in Sierra Madre these poisonous days is to get up early before smogfall when the town is still fresh and beautiful. A lengthy sniff and a nostalgic look around may be enough to carry you through the day.

POOL'S COOL. What with hysterical temperatures bubbling up and down and mostly up, why can't the city swimming pool be reopened—say afternoons and weekends?

DEGROOT GAIN. Felicitations to Willard DeGroot (pronounced De Groat and no relation to the pony-raising DeGroot's who used to live on Orange Grove)—recently elected president of Bateman Eichler Stock Exchange.

The De Groat (formerly Orange Grove dwellers, also) have lived down on Singing Wood Drive for the past ten years. Their daughter, Wendy, is in her sophomore year at Colorado University, while son John is at Flintridge Prep School.

PHONE CALL from a friend commiserating with the siren-frightened husband (in last week's column) who mistook an air raid test for real.

Seems that the friend, too, was home from work one alert-testing day and was so unstrung she rounded up the family dogs and hid with them in the hall for two hours.

"Although I'm laughing now," she said, "it wasn't funny at the time."

TAVERN TITLES these days are proving splendid alibi's for late-tipping topos whose wives are likely to ask "Where have YOU been?" Bar names spotted recently: "The Office," "A Sick Friend," and "No Place."

Hjordis Parker Visits
Lapps Near Red Border

Interviewing old Lapp acquaintances in the mountains of that picturesque and interesting section of Scandinavia, just a step from the Soviet Russian border and its Iron Curtain, was the recent good fortune of Mrs. Hjordis Kittel Parker, famed world traveler and "filmmist" of 193 Oak Meadow Rd., Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Parker went to Scandinavia three and one-half months ago to visit relatives and friends and to produce a new film which she is now editing and which will have its initial showing next Jan. 11.

"The most interesting experience I had over there this time," she remarked to the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, "was finding some old Swedish-Laplander friends in the mountains of Norway. I had gone to the Arctic Swedish town of Kiruna to meet them and to film them as I had in 1953.

"It turned out that they had had to leave for the high mountains of Norway, over the border, because their reindeer herd was grazing there then.

"My assistant and I walked up a steep mountain, where other Lapps had told us we would find them. We did find them about midnight. They had just rounded up the herd and were beginning to mark the calves' ears.

"We filmed them by the light of the midnight sun. My Lapp friends were surprised to see me but when they realized that I had my information about their position from the Lapp 'grapevine' they were not so astonished.

"After this meeting I stayed with my Lapp friends in their camp for a couple of days."

Second Annexation Debate . . .

Word Duel Between
Bevington, Brown
At PTA Meeting

Preliminary to the special election on Oct. 18 when Sierra Madreans will decide whether to annex the Elementary School District to the Pasadena Schools, the second debate on this momentous issue was fought out Monday night before a well-filled Sierra Madre School Auditorium between Lawrence C. Bevington, city administrator, arguing for the affirmative, and Mrs. Claude H. (Elena) Brown for the negative.

The occasion was the opening of the year meeting of the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association, with Mrs. Carl (Peggy) Cheadle presiding. Moderator of the debate was Thomas G. Edwards, 246 E. Montecito, PTA legislative chairman.

As in the first debate on Oct. 15 when she crossed words with John H. Curtis, Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce president, Mrs. Brown relied much on a plea that Sierra Madre students would do better in a home-town high school. However, she presented figures on the possible cost of such an establishment considerable at variance with Mr. Bevington who said that $2,650,000 would be a minimum cost for site and construction. Mrs. Brown contended it could be done for less than $2,000,000.

Mr. Bevington:

MR. BEVINGTON touched pertinently on the financial aspects and location problems if Sierra Madre chooses to construct its own high school after deciding for a unified school district of its own. He made these points:

"(1) We would have to construct either one plant for the seventh through twelfth grades (not ordinarily recommended) or construct two plants—one junior high and one senior high.

"(2) The State Department of Education standard calls for a minimum of 30 acres for a high school site. The most logical site in Sierra Madre from the location and development viewpoint has only 12 acres, including the purchase of several houses, with an approximate cost of $500,000 and every acre of increased land would entail removal of three to four additional houses (approximate cost $50,000 an acre).

"(3) Based on statewide building averages for size and cost, Dr. Melbo states in his report that the buildings and furnishings for the required 1,100 student combined junior and senior high school would cost $2,150,000. Total minimum cost of land and buildings $2,650,000.

"(4) THE SIERRA MADRE School District owes at present approximately $515,000 in existing bonds for our own kindergarten" through

Mrs. Brown:

FIRST CONTENDING that students should attend a school system within their own community and be a part of the community, Mrs. Brown made these points:

"It is felt that there would be more active support and interest by Sierra Madreans in their high school, than there is now.

"Less numerical competition would allow more students to take part in the extracurricular and athletic activities. (Last year, only one Sierra Madre boy was on the track team, this year, there is no one on the football team); participation is difficult, especially on the junior high level, because of lack of transportation. Also, extra help in studies is not always possible because of lack of extra transportation. Merchants would benefit from increased sales, because students would spend their money at home."

"Better control of juvenile delinquency and dope problems. Pasadena has a high incidence in these areas.

"Better teacher-students-parents relations. "Better gearing of curriculum to our students' needs and closer counseling and guidance than now available in a larger system.

"Teachers and students don't get 'lost' as in a larger system.

"Possible better future mental health, because the

Next Play 'You Can't Take It With You'

The next presentation of the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater will be a fun-filled, heart-warming theater classic, "You Can't Take It With You," according to an announcement this week by the group's president, William N. Spargur.

The play, it is expected, will be presented in the Sierra Madre School Auditorium. Dates for future readings, and a list of the characters needed for the play will be published soon in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

The Repertoire Theater group will hold an open meeting this (Thursday) night at 8 o'clock in the School Auditorium at Highland and N. Auburn when plans for the production and preliminary readings will be discussed. Invitations for anyone to join the group are extended by Jane Buchan, the unit's publicity chairman.

Fund Drive

The "Dollars For Democrats" drive under way for two weeks, concludes this week, according to Mrs. Mavis Sheets and James Holt, chairmen.

Mrs. Sheets and Mr. Holt report the drive to be the most successful yet held by the Democrats in Sierra Madre, and wish to thank the following who took part:

Dr. Peter W. Fay, Tom Redman, Kenneth Green, Gina Velasquez, Joyce Penrose, George Koch, Margaret Koch, Margaret Lathe, Tom Lathe, Mabel Kay, Margaret Norris.

Also Paul Landwehr, James Fenwick, Frances Elwood, Leslie Chapman, Betty Kennedy, Mardell Movly, Evelyn Sloman, Ken Moyer, May Moyer, Melissa Nash, Keith Seegmiller, Nancy Seegmiller, Don Godfrey.

Pool Study to Be Made . . .

Park Play Program
Attendance Slumps

CITY COUNCIL will tour the Sierra Vista Park area, beginning at 8 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, to get first-hand closeup of the prospective needs of the city's leading playground.

Summer Play Program attendance at Sierra Vista Park was below that of last year, Recreation Director David A. Sommers advised the Parks and Recreation Commission at its monthly meeting on Sept. 22.

The demand for pool instruction was, however, heavier than the time allotted for swim lessons.

Asked by Chairman Margaret Anthony for a reason for the fall-off in the Summer Play Program attendance, Director Sommers said that he had "no real reason for it." He mentioned that the head instructor was good but that "the assistants could have been better."

ANSWERING a question, the director said that "the average age group in playground activities is fourth graders, going up to fifth graders. This is in contrast to other playgrounds which I have observed where an older group from fifth to sixth grades seems to predominate. The older group in Sierra Madre does not seem interested in our activities. Reason for more boys in older group this year was because quite a bit of baseball was played and much more sports activity."

Commissioner Anthony said it would be a good idea to have a study made by a committee while the season's activities were still fresh in the commission's minds. Mentioning the third year operation of the pool,

Reorganization

Bevington's
Resignation
Is Hinted

Reorganization of the city administrative setup, approved Tuesday night by the Sierra Madre Council, brought the remark by City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington that there was always the possibility of his accepting another post in another city.

The administrator's remark came during deliberation on the reorganization which would bring in an assistant engineer who would double as public works superintendent. The latter post is now vacant.

Coming several meetings after Administrator Bevington received a $600 a year salary boost, it was, however, conditioned on the fact that it was always well to have an engineer handy in case the present city administrator should resign.

IT HAD BEEN pointed out previously that Administrator Bevington, doubling as administrator and city engineer, has been forced to shoulder too heavy a burden and that some relief was necessary. It also has been pointed out that it has been necessary to hire additional outside engineering help, the expense of which some years has approximated $20,000.

The reorganization which incidentally reappoints duties in several departments, would not increase city expense. It affects 19 men, plus three part-time.

Affected are engineering, zoning and planning; street construction; maintenance and cleaning; water pumping; construction and maintenance; street tree planting, trimming and removal; equipment maintenance; building maintenance, park construction and maintenance, weed removal and land cleaning.

Little Boy
Accidentally
Suffocates

Jody La Lone Van Wickle, 4-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Van Wickle, 50 South Hermosa, died accidentally from what appeared to be a virus of pneumonia affliction Saturday evening while on a bed in the home of a neighbor baby-sitter, according to a Sierra Madre police and coroner's report.

Mrs. Van Wickle had left the baby with the neighbor while she did her Saturday shopping. The little boy slept on his stomach and apparently jammed his face into the bed linens, this abetted by his illness, producing suffocation. Heat also may have been a contributing factor.

WHEN the baby-sitter discovered the baby turning blue she called the police and Dr. James P. Comerford. Officers Leonard Carnighan and Billy Keith used a resuscitator and also resorted to mouth breathing, but of

Civic Club to Initiate
New Members Oct. 13

New members of the Sierra Madre Civic Club will be formally initiated into the club on Thursday, Oct. 13, at the Derby Restaurant in Arcadia.

Mrs. George H. Hohnsbeen, first vice president of the Verdugo District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, will be the initiating officer.

The Mothersinger Trio from Eugene Field School will entertain.

Mrs. Edward Chapman, membership chairman, is in charge of arrangements for the annual initiation banquet.

$366,125 Sewer Plan
Approved By Solons

Sierra Madre City Council waded into the fight against the California Water and Phone Co. Tuesday night. It adopted a resolution urging the Public Utilities Commission to order an investigation into the service which the company affords the people of this area.

If substance emerges from this move then a petition signed by 25 persons can bring a similar request for investigation of its rates, the increase of which has been target these recent months by municipalities and service organizations throughout this region, notably Hastings Ranch and Arcadia.

In a long, drawn-out session Council reached important decisions as follows:

1—Began administrative reorganization of the city government.

2—Gave a break at last to the Toyon Rd. property owners in refusing point-blank to order condemnation proceedings in favor of the Prescott Company subdividers.

3—Took the initial steps for a $366,125 sewer system for a larger part of the city.

4—Moved to speed up leasing land in Sierra Vista Park to the Nursery School Association for an addition to its present establishment.

CITY ADMINISTRATOR

Lawrence C. Bevington and Councilman Severin L. Sorensen reported contact with a representative of the Public Utilities Commission about the California Water and Phone Co. service, and since an investigation was immediately possible on service and a rate inquiry more remote, urged action on the former.

Council acted speedily. It instructed Administrator Bevington to write a letter to the PUC requesting such an investigation. Council is the first legislative body in the area to act in this direction.

WHEN IT CAME to the $366,125 sewer district covering a large segment of the city, Council displayed further alacrity, quickly passing the enabling resolutions without dissent. The total net area covered will be 6,859,525 square feet and the percentage of those in the area asking for the improvement is 62.81 per cent. Boundaries of the area affected, largest sewer undertaking by the city are:

Sierra Madre Blvd. east from Michillinda to the west of Baldwin Ave. (not including Baldwin); north on the west of Baldwin to Highland and then north on Auburn at Highland to the south rear of Grand View going west until Sunnyside at Sunnyside (both sides); north to Fairview (not including Fairview); across to Michillinda; then all of the east side of Michillinda to Sierra Madre Blvd.

It is hoped to have the sewer completed by next July.

Council Refuses to Bring Condemnation Proceedings
In Toyon Road Battle

Led by Councilmen Severin L. Sorensen and Milton R. Emerson, City Council Tuesday night tossed right back into the lap of the Prescott Company subdividers its request that the city institute condemnation proceedings against the Toyon Rd. property owners.

This was another step in the long drawn-out battle between the property owners in the old Lewis hillside tract against the Pasadena subdividers. The latest move followed a futile conference between company and property owners regarding tracts the former sought to gain roadway entrance into the subdivision.

TOYON RD. people have repeatedly charged that the Prescott Company's plans call for smaller lots than 15,000 square feet and that if the subdivision, if carried out, would prove injurious to the entire area. They blocked entrance to the subdivision by refusing to sell the plots necessary for the roadway.

Arthur Shapiro of the company and Atty. Thomas Garcia sought to have Council to bring condemnation proceedings to gain these roadway tracts for which

Ah, That Prayer

Sierra Madre City Council opened Tuesday night's session with a prayer, but the Ministerial Association was not a contributing factor as had been hoped.

Council, acting under a resolution adopted at its previous session, ruled prayer should open its meetings. In this, it requested that the Ministerial Association appoint a different minister each time to make the prayer.

The clergymen threw the prayer business right back into the laps of the solons. In effect, they said: "Say your own prayers."

The city fathers did just that. Mayor W. Webster Vannier read a prayer by the late famed Presbyterian minister, Peter Marshall, when he was chaplain of the United States Senate. It was a dinger.

WITH Councilman James F. Abernethy still expressing his opposition, Council adopted a resolution instructing Administrator Bevington, City Atty. Charles R. Martin and Recreation Director David A. Sommers to go into a huddle and devise plans by which the 10,000-square-foot site sought by the Nursery School Association for its addition in Sierra Vista Park may be put up for lease.

While not so expressed, this move, it is hoped, will solve this months-old problem. The Nursery School is willing to build the addition they had offered what residents term "ridiculously small amounts."

As usual there was a large delegation from Toyon Rd. present and they applauded lustily when Council voted down the company's proposal.

AS IT TAKES from six to seven months to get a condemnation case on court calendar, the delay affords Toyon Rd. property owners an opportunity to renew their battle against the subdividers whose plans for the tract had been previously approved by Council and the Planning Commission.

There also is the possibility that the property owners may combine and buy back the tract from the Prescott Company—providing the price is right.

St. Rita's Guild Meets On Oct. 4

Mrs. Christopher Paige Robertson, president of St. Rita's Guild, will preside at the first luncheon meeting of the 1960-61 season, to be held Oct. 4 at 12 o'clock noon in the school hall.

Guest speaker, Father Harold Laubacher, archdiocesan assistant director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will discuss "Adolescence," which promises to be a most interesting and enlightening program.

The eighth grade mothers will prepare and serve the luncheon with Mrs. Andrew Papac and Mrs. Julian Vecchione in charge.

Democratic Women Plan Benefit

Arcadia Democratic Women's Club's first annual Wine Festival plans are well under way with invitations in the mail this week bidding hundreds in the area to the event Saturday, Oct. 1, from 4:30 to 7 p.m., at the R. S. Avery estate, 1 Deodar Lane, Bradbury.

Billed informally as a "Sip with a VIP," the festival features four of California's leading premium wineries in a presentation of their very best.

The committee states there will be no speeches, but guests will have an opportunity to chat with Democratic VIPs Mrs. Rudd Brown, Paul Egly, George Kasem and Dore Sharpe, all candidates, as well as a number of incumbents from nearby districts. Lively guitar music in the early California manner appropriate to such a festive seasonal event will highlight the entertainment.

Uniquely designed to combine fun with fund-raising, proceeds from the affair will be divided between the 25th and 21st Congressional Districts for mailings in the current campaign. Donations are $2.50 each, with tickets available at all Democratic headquarters offices and through local clubs.

The festival committee is headed by Mrs. Thomas Bracken, assisted by Mesdames John D. Arozana, John E. Ward and Herbert S. Sercombe.

Ascension Women Meet Wednesday, Make Plans

Planning for their annual Fall Festival, women of the Church of the Ascension will hold their October meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the parish home. It will be a work meeting, members being requested to bring rummage, white elephants and articles they are working on to be sold at the festival.

Members are asked to bring their own sandwich to the meeting. Coffee will be provided. Child care will be held at 550 N. Hermosa Ave. St. Dunstan's Choir will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the parish house for rehearsal. David J. Billeter, organist and choirmaster, invites all wishing to join the choir to attend.

DEWEY EXHIBIT

A group of paintings by the late well-known artist, Alfred James Dewey, went on display at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club yesterday in connection with the club's fall tea. Miss Grace Webber, chairman of the exhibit, said the paintings will be on display through October and November.

EPISCOPAL BENEFIT

The Episcopal Church Home for Children will benefit from a silver tea and a premiere showing of "Original" Christmas wreaths from 2 to 6 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Preston Plumb, 2041 Ashbourne Dr., South Pasadena.

Mrs. Eugene Field Englar, 250 W. Highland, is active in benefit plans. All friends are invited to attend.

A. A. U. W.

"The How, Where, When and Why of Modern Art" will be the topic of the Art Section of the A. A. U. W. at a meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the home of Panchita Simon, 100 W. Camino Real. Elva McMurray will lead discussion.

Betty Hartranft, 41 N. Canon Ave., will be hostess to "Higher Education" and "Elementary and Secondary Education" sections at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Two past presidents, Ione Paradise and Anne Schryver, will discuss Federal aid to education.

SHAKESPEARE ACTIVITIES

A reception for the president, Mrs. Daniel H. Rogers, and past presidents will follow a Sigmund Romberg program presented by the First Operatic Group at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the auditorium.

Mrs. Guy L. Curtis, program chairman, will introduce the musical portion of the program, after a business meeting. The operatic group consists of Keith Wyatt, Olive Rice, Phillip Harvey III and Margery MacKay, a professional group with recent appearances in opera, TV and radio to their credit.

The Shakespeare Drama Workshop will meet at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Stratford House. The American Home Department meeting, featuring "Ideas for Christmas" from members is set for 11 a.m. at Stratford House. Luncheon will be served. Mrs. A. J. Frederick is director. Reservations are being made through Mrs. R. E. Price and Mrs. J. F. Partch.

Alpha Chi Omegas Will Be Given Diamond Jubilee Report by Mrs. Tom Lowe

The daytime group of Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae in the San Gabriel Valley will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Porter, 1348 Descanso Dr., La Canada, Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. Assisting the hostess will be Miss Olive LaClair of La Canada and Mmes. Charles L. Carter and Arnold Ware of South Pasadena. Reservations should be made by calling Mrs. Ware, SYcamore 9-7037, or Mrs. Henry E. Zillgitt, ATlantic 4-5763.

Of interest will be the report of the president, Mrs. Thomas Lowe of San Gabriel. She will tell of her experiences as delegate to the fraternity's Diamond Jubilee convention held at French Lick, Ind., last summer.

Alpha Chi Omega was founded at DePaw University, Greencastle, Ind., October, 1885. The convention was set in Indiana so those attending could spend a day at DePaw University. Of the original founders, only one is still living.

MRS. LOWE will bring to the chapter an account of the president's memorial to the president of DePaw as well as a description of the pageant depicting the founding of Alpha Chi Omega as presented at Meharry Hall where the founders made their first public appearance as Alpha Chi Omegas.

Mrs. Lowe will preside at a short business meeting. Serving as members of her board for the coming year

Coffee Party Honors Mrs. Morris

Mrs. Barney Tumilty, 58 W. Carter, was hostess last week at a coffee hour honoring Mrs. Earl C. Morris, 44 W. Carter, who with her husband and four of their children, Douglas, Lynn, Christine and Charles, will be leaving for a two-year stay in Japan where he will be associated with Lockheed Overseas.

An Oriental motif was carried out in the floral decorations and table arrangement. The Japanese confections were served guests on Shinto food trays.

Guests included Mrs. Arthur Draeger, Mrs. James R. Nixon, Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mrs. Milton Valois, Mrs. Nathaniel Van de Verg, Mrs. Kenneth Bush and Mrs. James Winslow.

Also, Mrs. Gale Hersey, Mrs. Claude Brown, Mrs. Edward Dammeier, Mrs. Draper Phillips, Mrs. Ted Stevenson, Mrs. Pret Keyes, Mrs. Helen Loomis, Mrs. Alyce Herold, Mrs. Ray Long, Mrs. Murray Hawkins, Mrs. Herbert Tatch of Monrovia and Mrs. Randolph Richards and Mrs. Earl Zorn of San Marino.

The Morris' older daughter, Karen, will be attending school at University of California at Santa Barbara.

Alverno Guild Sets Retreat Wednesday

A Day of Reflection for the Mount Alverno Guild will take place, beginning at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Motherhouse, 675 W. Highland.

Father Keith Schlitz will be retreat master, the program to commence with Mass at 9 a.m. Breakfast and lunch will be served and the donation for the day will be $3.

After conferences and the recitation of the Rosary, activities will conclude with Benediction at 2 p.m. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Anthony Porreca, AT 60622, or the parish representative for St. Rita's, Mrs. Anthony DePasco, ELgin 5-0474.

Woman's Club Offers Painting Classes Here

The Sierra Madre Woman's Club will offer oil painting classes in October for members and non-members. Mrs. Elinor Baumeister will be the instructor.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Gletchen Newbery, ELgin 5-9684.

Social and Club Activities

Alpha Chi Omega Alums Plan Fashion Luncheon

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae groups of the Greater Los Angeles area will sponsor "Magic in Motion," a fashion arship Fund Oct. 13 in the Biltmore Bowl.

The "magic" theme will be carried out in the table decorations for 1,000 guests, each table to be centered with a white rabbit about to be pulled from a black top hat. The fall collection of Travilla, California designer, will be shown from a stage accented by a bouquet of magic wands.

Mrs. Frank E. Snedecor is general chairman for the second year, with Mrs. J. Roy Smetz and Mrs. Grant Changstrom from this area, among her assistants. A group of patronesses will be Mrs. A. L. Jensen, Mrs. Harold L. Pierce, Mrs. John McDonald, Mrs. Richard N. H. Frank, Mrs. Jerome Forbes, Mrs. Phillip T. Henderson Jr. and Mrs. J. Robert Winegardner, of the San Gabriel Valley.

LOCAL ALUMNAE assisting in the benefit include Mrs. Thomas L. Lowe, Mrs. Marshall Kester, Mrs. Paul Watson, Mrs. Myron E. Smith, Mrs. J. Warren Nelson, Mrs. Elwood Laine, Mrs. B. J. Rose, Mrs. William Tucker, Mrs. L. G. Kollin, Mrs. Harry Masser Jr., Mrs. C. Douglas Wike, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. C. A. Fosselman, Mrs. Donald Swenson and Mrs. Walter Gribbon. Guests from this area will include Mrs. C. V. Armstrong, Mrs. Donald MacKinnon, Mrs. J. V. Tatterfall Sr., Mrs. J. V. Tatterfall Jr., Mrs.

Food Editor Is Guest at Coffee Party

Clementine Paddelford, food editor of This Week Magazine and author of a soon-to-be-published cookbook, "How America Eats," was a guest in the home of Mrs. Rocky Scharer, 210 S. Mountain Trail, last week at a morning coffee party.

Miss Paddelford made the trip to Sierra Madre from New York to interview members of a Christmas Cooky "Swap" Party which meets each December at the Scharer home with their favorite cookies to be traded.

Participating in this annual event are Mrs. William Preston, Mrs. J. F. Bigelow, Mrs. R. C. Copeland, Mrs. Harold M. Davidson, Mrs. Clifford Faust, Mrs. Douglas Granzow, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Karl Keeler, Mrs. Oscar Kraft Jr., Mrs. R. H. Morgan, Mrs. Paul Schlea, Mrs. A. P. Stuhman and Mrs. Esther Van Vleet.

Last Christmas time, after being told of the fun event by Mrs. Preston, Miss Paddelford had a photographer take pictures of the cookies. She was here to interview the members and get their recipes so maybe they and their "Swap" Party may be written up in This Week Magazine.

San Gabriel Valley Symphony Announces Season's Concerts

The executive board of the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Orchestra has released detailed plans for the 1960-61 concert season. As in previous years, the concerts will be held in Monrovia and Glendora.

The opening concert of the 33rd season will be held in the Monrovia High School Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 9, at 3. The second concert of the opening pair will be held the following Monday evening, Oct. 10, at 8 in the Citrus College Auditorium.

On Nov. 27 and 28, the second pair of concerts will feature a choral program with Mr. Edward Horton of Glendora as guest conductor.

A highlight of the season will occur on Jan. 15, when the annual Children's Program is given. This concert is given especially for the young people of the Valley, and is of intense interest to youngsters and parents alike.

Other concerts are scheduled for Feb. 26 and 27; 6:570.

SPECIAL FAIR GUEST

Nellie Naida Salvosa of Sierra Madre was among 200 foreign-born students who yesterday were guests of the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. The students, representing some 50 different countries, are studying in Southern California with American Field Service Exchange Student scholarships.

Born in Baguio City, Philippines, Miss Salvosa is presently living with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Snow, 310 E. Highland, Sierra Madre, while attending Westridge Girls School in Pasadena.

UP ON...

Hastings Hill

Robbie Pruitt's beautiful patio was the scene of the Hastings section of the Needlework Guild "ingathering" party the other afternoon, and her living room was bursting with work of the members of the sewing group. Robbie said 186 garments were made and $25 contributed, all of which will be turned over to the Pasadena section for distribution to those in need.

Many dainty layettes, dresses and nightgowns as well as some purchased jeans and undergarments were on display. Section members enjoyed dessert and then played bridge and other games, their once-a-year party when they aren't busy with needle and thread. Pat Gouge and Rachel Cline, Robbie's assistants this year, and Marie McIlvennan, assisted with the party. Volunteer assistants for next year will be Marie and Hazel Mitchell.

SALLY BONDURANT, one of the busiest young women in Hastings Ranch, or almost anywhere for that matter, will leave soon for a three-day Mount Holyoke College Alumnae Fund conference at South Hadley, Mass. Sally, community chairman of the local alumnae campaign committee, will be among 200 alumnae to attend the conference. On her return to Pasadena, she will give a "coffee" at her home to kick off the local campaign, after which 20 solicitors will personally contact the 100 Mt. Holyoke graduates living in the San Gabriel Valley area. Mt. Holyoke has received national recognition for the effectiveness of its fund raising. Last year alumnae topped their announced goal of $250,000, and this year plan to raise $300,000. Sally is a wise choice for this or any other job, be it modeling for fun, running a bridge tournament for the Hastings Nursery School, managing a home for husband Frank and three small children, or handling various Junior League duties.

LAST DETAILS of the Oriental Fantasy dinner dance, set Oct. 8 by the Hastings Ranch Guild for Cystic Fibrosis, will be ironed out at a meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Kenneth C. Holloway Jr., in Arcadia.

As usual, those lucky enough to have tickets for the affair, are looking forward to a memorable evening. The party will again be held at the spectacular Stuart Building.

THE GALS in the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church parish are in for an informative evening. Joanie Bevan, program chairman, has obtained a film, "Time and Two Women," from American Cancer Society which will be shown Oct. 4 at 8 p.m. in parish hall.

Dr. George W. Groth Jr. will preside over the question and answer period following showing of the film.

JOANIE BEVAN and Pat Edison have had their hands full taking care of the reservations that are coming in for the CF dance on Oct. 8. It's a shame reservations are limited because of space. The building is such a beautiful place to have a party and last year's soiree was such a big success it's too bad more people can't share in the fun.

Patti Wright has done a marvelous job as general chairman. It's amazing to find anyone as pretty as she is that is such a marvelous

Field PTA Plans Paper Drive Oct. 8

Eugene Field School PTA has announced the first paper and rag drive for the year will take place on Saturday, Oct. 8, at the school grounds from 8 a.m. until noon.

All residents in the area, whether they have children in the school or not, are invited to bring their papers and rags to help the drive along. Participants are reminded the truck leaves promptly at 12 o'clock and all donations must be in by this time.

A prize will be awarded to both upper and lower grade rooms collecting the most papers. Any child or family that brings in 30 or more inches of papers may see a free cartoon.

organizer and can work so hard.

JEANNIE CUMMISKEY and daughter, Cathie, were much in evidence at the County Fair held in Pomona. Jeannie exhibited, for the sixth year, her antique dolls. It was her third year of exhibiting her etched glass and the first for her mosaics.

It was the first year the two of them had exhibited their show horse, "Beloved Bravo," who took an active part in the part of the program reserved for the world's largest Palomino championship horse show which was held at the Caran Ring on the Fair Grounds.

Cathie showed the horse in the pleasure horse class and saddle horse seat children's equitation class and Jeannie showed him in the gelding horse show and pleasure horse class. Their guest was Desi Winchester, a former pupil of Jeannie's who keeps her saddle-bred show horse at Eaton Canyon Stables.

Don Benito Barbecue Is Success

Don Benito Frontier Barbecue night was a rousing success with guests attending numbering more than 350. Don Kenmouth, chairman, introduced Fred Sawyer, master of ceremonies, who took command of the program like a real cowboy. Author, John Du Bois, read his "Reflections of an Old Beat" to the accompaniment of Vic Harris' bongo drums and Bob Victor's tub fiddle. The Crown City Coronets, Women's National Champion Barbershop Quartet, sang several of their award winning songs.

Mrs. Carley announced the Life Membership Committee for this year is as follows: Mrs. William Pursley, chairman; Mrs. Jack Comerford; Mrs. David Lifton; Mrs. Philip Birkhahn, and Mrs. Vic Harris. Oct. 10, will be the opening date of the drive.

Trinity Young Folk Plan Family Night Fiesta Oct. 1

To prove again that "families who work together, play together, and pray together are the happiest," the Young Peoples' Groups and the Couples' Clubs (Mariners) of Trinity Presbyterian Church are readying final details for their Family Night Fiesta to be held on Saturday night, Oct. 1.

Fun games and dancing and part of the serving and clean-up chores are being handled by the young people of the church, while their parents prepare and serve the family favorite foods for which this annual fiesta has become so widely known throughout the foothill areas of Pasadena, Sierra Madre, Altadena and Arcadia.

FEATURED FOODS include charcoal broiled hamburgers with all the trimmings, cheeseburgers, and hot dogs grilled in a special way. A mild but zesty chili is being made from an Old-World recipe, and the cabbage slaw is to come from a leading Pasadena restaurant. Potato chips will be served by pretty girls in pretty aprons, and beverages will be brought to the tables.

Best part of the evening, according to several young people who have observed their mothers at work, will be the dessert—gooey, home-made cakes, great big pieces, topped with ice cream.

"These are the kinds of cakes," commented one, "that Mom only makes for church socials. We're lucky to get plain cake at home."

GENERAL CHAIRMAN for Trinity's Family Night Fiesta is David C. Porter who lives with his wife and four children at 960 Pepperhill, Pasadena.

"This fiesta," he says, "is to be bigger and better and more fun than any we've had before. Everyone is invited—even the little ones. We even have a well-staffed nursery to look after them so Mom and Dad and the older children can have a real evening of family fun with games, good food, dancing, and good fellowship."

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

In other parts of the country they herald the coming of autumn with the slowly turning of the leaves to gold and red. Here we go off of daylight saving time, wonder if there will be any more pool weather, and silently settle down to committee work till next spring.

In this house it means supper will be on time for a few weeks till "Mother" gets adjusted again. "Mother" is so continental, we always eat around 7 p.m.

There just aren't enough hours to do everything and besides it takes the meat so long to defrost. Seriously, it is kind of nice to have it grow dark in the evening once again. I feel like a squirrel getting ready to tuck in for the winter—kind of cozy . . . snzzzz!

MR. AND MRS. BEN ROGERS of Pasadena Glen once more stole the culinary prize last weekend when they served their guests barbecue albacore that Mr. Rogers had caught himself.

After a brisk session on the badminton court, the group settled down to a marvelous dinner in their lovely patio.

Their guests were Messrs. and Mrs. John Wiles, George Clark, A. J. Huber, Carl Mounter, Charles Klingerman, Ralph Paquette, Arturo Gutierrez, George Amthor, John Eppard, Jim Germaine, Ernest Maurin, Richard Schmitt, from Orange, and Capt. and Mrs. Jack Rogers.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH MANGAN are back in their Old House Rd. home after a trip that took them to the Olympics in Rome for three weeks. Mr. Mangan is coach of the Southern California Striders.

Incidentally, the Striders got more than their share of the honors won by the United States Field and Track Team.

After leaving Rome the Mangans went on to Paris and then to London where they attended the British Empire games before flying home again.

MRS. H. C. TUMILTY of Sierra Madre Villa was hostess at a luncheon last week honoring Mrs. George Horning of Chicago, who is visiting Mrs. Barney Napier. Mrs. Howard Garrison also joined the group for the afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. MILLARD JACOBS of Kinneloa Mesa "got full up to the neck" with the building of their new swimming pool. As they said, if they knew then what they know now . . . At any rate, it seemed like a good reason to take a brief weekend vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gero.

Their destination was San Diego where they stayed at the Shelter Inn. They had a marvelous time and slipped across the border to enjoy a little Jai Alai.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GALBRAITH of Hartwood Point Dr. entertained Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Savage and Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Cole last weekend for an informal dinner. Rev. Mr. Savage has just been transferred to the Central Christian Church in Pasadena from his former parish in Kentucky.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MORSE of Mesa Loa Lane feted Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilfong at a bon voyage cocktail party and buffet dinner last weekend. They carried the theme out in a typical style starting with the front porch which was decorated to look like a ship's rail.

As you stepped inside it was as if you were stepping to a section of the Orient, which, by the way, is where the Wilfongs will be going. The entire room was adorned with mobiles of fans and tiny umbrellas. Mr. Morris was dressed as the captain of the ship and the rest of the guests came in costumes representative of people they might expect to meet en route.

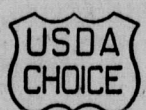

The guests, in addition to the Wilfongs, were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Batterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lucas, who will be traveling with them; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, who will meet them in Hong Kong; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Deitzel, Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bucher, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Deitzel and Mr. and Mrs. John Stephan.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RECLASSIFICATION NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre will hold a public hearing at 8:00 o'clock P.M. on Thursday, October 20, 1960, in the Council Chambers of the City Hall of Sierra Madre, located at 55 West Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, for the purpose of considering the rezoning from R-1 (Single Family) to R-2 (Multiple Dwellings) of property described as follows: Northern 30 ft. of Lots 5 and 6, described as southerly portion of 404 Mariposa Avenue at the corner of Park Avenue (Nicholson property).

This proposed reclassification is based upon the grounds that there are special circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other property in the same district and vicinity, that the granting of a reclassification, as aforesaid, will not result in a material damage or prejudice to other property nor be detrimental to the public welfare or to persons in the vicinity thereof.

Dated: September 26, 1960.

Scout Troop Plans Annual Breakfast

Sierra Madre Boy Scout Troop No. 376 will stage its second annual chuck wagon breakfast at Sierra Madre Memorial Park on Saturday, Oct. 22, from 7:30 to 10. The menu — hot cakes, bacon, fruit juices, coffee and milk — all you can eat. Color slides of the Sierra back-park trip will be shown free.

The Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona invited Rattlesnake Patrol of Troop 376 for a two-day celebration as Honor Scouts taking first prize in camping competition. Scouts attending were Foss Morton and father, Bill Bains, Richard Linkekens, Larry Lutzow, Roger Morrison, Leon Moses and father.

The Flaming Arrow Patrol of Troop 376, achieving second place in this competition, were guests of the fair on Sept. 23-24. Scouts attending were John Bohart and father, Richard Dauben, Walter Goodwin, Richard Scurr, Louis Sequedo and Rory Smith.

TROOP 376, spent nine days summer vacation starting at east side of Mamouth

Lake and finishing on the west side at Edison. Fourteen Scouts and dads traveled the 33 miles at altitudes of 9,000 to 11,000 feet. The weather was clear, fishing at its best at Tully Hole where rainbow and golden trout were caught.

This trip was a back-pack hike, the average of 26 to 30 pounds carried by each Scout on his back. This also included the nine pounds of dry food, enough for 21 meals.

Scouts worked toward their merit badges in skills and craftsmanhips.

One week was spent by Scouts from the San Gabriel Council Area at Cherry Valley on Catalina Island. Scouts enjoyed the sight of Movie Actor Ward Bonds yacht at Fisherman's Cove.

Most of the Scouts worked towards their merit badges for rowing, swimming, canoe, shooting, pioneering. Hikes were made to Fishermans Cove where squid were found; fireside talks were held in the evenings.

Three boys from Troop 376 out of 20 boys passed their rowing requirements.

Another summer event was held near the Colorado Springs Air Force Base.

Some 55,000 Scouts from all nations attended the fifth National Jamboree, celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Boy Scouting. Scouts attending from Troop 376, were Foss Morton, Bob Sallor, Leon Moses.

sixth grade and $568,000 in high school bonds which we must pay for even if we withdraw from Pasadena. Total present bonds, $1,083,000.

"(5) The Sierra Madre School District at present has an assessed valuation of approximately $16,250,000. A unified school district can have 10 per cent of the assessed valuation in bonds or $1,625,000. Unless the citizens would vote at a unification election to assume this amount plus the existing $1,083,000, in bonds, we would have a new or additional capacity of only $542,000.

"(6) The difference between the estimated cost of $2,650,000 and the probable bonding capacity of $542,000 could only be met by a loan from the state. The citizens of Sierra Madre would have to vote by a two-thirds majority the full bonding capacity and then by a two-thirds majority vote to repay the entire loan of $2,108,000."

MR. BEVINGTON dealt with rumors which have been circulated concerning the situation, first repeating the rumor and then giving the following answers:

Rumor (1) If Sierra Madre withdraws, Pasadena must, should or probably would make some cash payment to Sierra Madre to compensate for our bonded indebtedness.

Fact (1) There is no legal requirement for such a payment. Pasadena has no money set aside toward such a possibility and they actually legally are prohibited from making a gift of public funds so they probably could not do so if they wanted to. There would be an adjustment of items, such as rolling stock, materials and supplies and cash on hand. We would receive approximately 4 per cent of the total value on which no definite figure is available. The best estimate is approximately $50,000.

Rumor (2) Sierra Madre can just wait and do nothing.

Fact (2) It is legally possible for us to wait but we would face the increased bonds of the third Pasadena high school and after September, 1963, the County Committee would have the right and duty to recommend to the State Board a plan for Sierra Madre. The County Committee and the State Board would have the right to annex us to Pasadena, Arcadia or Monrovia.

Rumor (3) Sierra Madre students are different, college oriented and have no drop-out problem, so we could build a specialty high school.

Fact (3) No study covering a large enough group has been presented to indicate that Sierra Madre students are different from Pasadena students, nor demand less courses to prepare them for the future.

Rumor (4) Sierra Madre students can't obtain an adequate number of courses.

Fact (4) Pasadena High School (which is new and will have shakedown cruise problems for a year or two) offers a total of 153 courses representing 408 semesters of study.

Rumor (5) Sierra Madre can reject the present bonds if they unify.

Fact (5) Sierra Madre must still pay for any bonds previously incurred. If voted at the time of unification the new unified district could decide to reserve a full 10 per cent bonding capacity in addition to existing bonds. This would mean we would have $1,083,000 of existing bonds, and to build the necessary buildings, $1,625,000 in new bonds and a state loan of $1,025,000 or a total of $3,733,000 which represents 20 per cent bonded indebtedness instead of the ordinary 10 per cent limit.

Rumor (6) Sierra Madre recreation programs will suffer.

Fact (6) The Sierra Madre Recreation Commission has investigated the program offered by the Pasadena Recreation Department to the schools and is very satisfied. The Sierra Madre Recreation Commission will continue to operate the swimming pool and other programs at Sierra Vista and Memorial Parks, but a greatly expanded program would be offered at school after hours, during holidays and summer vacation.

Dies in Garden

The mother of Mrs. John A. (Margaret A.) Sielen, of 325 Toyon Rd., died suddenly of a heart attack at her ranch home in Ontario last Sunday. The family, returning from church, found that she had passed away while watering the garden.

Mrs. Brown

students have roots and belong somewhere.

"Top administration is closer to the whole school situation.

"With a new system, Sierra Madre would be able, if alert, to put to use some of the newly developing ideas of improved high school education, without having to make the slow ponderous change from established traditions."

MRS. BROWN'S figures on possible costs of buildings and site for a Sierra Madre High School differed widely from the figures presented by the opposition, including Mr. Curtis and also the Melbo report. Here she said:

"Dr. Melbo's report gave an estimate of $2,563,490 for a school to house an ultimate student population of 1,100 in grades 7-12. This estimate is based on a land acquisition cost of $500,000 and a construction cost of $15 per square foot. Total over-all costs would be $1,919,990.

"Since the ultimate enrollment would not be reached until approximately 1970, it appears reasonable to assume that initially a school to accommodate an enrollment of 700 should be adequate.

"Using the State formula of 58,200 square feet per pupil, plus 80 square feet per pupil for all over 600, a school of 66,200 square feet would satisfy the initial requirement. Using Dr. Melbo's basic figures, following is the cost breakdown for such a school:

"Using the per acre cost of $30,000, the assumed cost per acre used by Mr. Curtis, a Sierra Madre realtor, last week in discussing the school situation and the same 12 acres assumed by Dr. Melbo, the land acquisition cost of $360,000 would appear to be reasonable. This would result in a school costing $1,779,990.

"Since good school buildings are being constructed for $13 per square foot and less in many parts of the country, including California (see School Board Association's Journals), it should be possible to meet our needs with a total expenditure of $1,647,290.

"In order to compute the bond tax rate necessary to finance the various alternatives above, the following assumptions are made:

"(1) Outstanding elementary and high school bonds will not be assumed by the unified district.

"(2) Costs are to be financed without state aid.

"(3) The estimated AV for 1961-62 of $16,956,400 is used as the tax base.

"(4) Bonds are to be redeemed over a 25-year period with equal payments on principal.

"(5) Bond interest rate of 4 per cent as a maximum.

"If it is possible to obtain state aid for construction of a high school, it is estimated that the total school tax rate for 1960-61 ($4.25) would be increased by $0.32, for a total of $4.57. Sierra Madre as of May, 1960, had a bonded indebtedness of $515,000 in elementary bonds and $568,000 as its share (4 per cent) of the high school bonds. Both have been or will be reduced by this year's payments."

Attendance Slumps

Stine and Albertson were named to make this study. Assistant City Administrator Thomas Butch will cooperate. The committee is to make recommendations for future use of the pool.

COMMISSIONER Abernethy said that a male representative should be on hand at all times at the Youth Hut when the Youth Coordinating Council stages its dances there. He also said the Police Department should be notified to have a patrol car check the area during dances.

The recreational director said the Youth Council has conducted "some successful dances at the Youth Hut, but that the last dance did not go too well."

Director Sommers admitted the communication between his department and the Youth Council had not been "up to par."

Services Are Held For A. F. Carlson

Funeral services for Arthur F. Carlson, 74, a general contractor in Sierra Madre for 11 years, who passed away at his home, 128 Esperanza, on Sept. 21, were conducted last Friday at 11 a.m. in the Riple Mortuary. Rev. Robert N. Schaper of Bethany Church officiated, with interment in Live Oak Cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Carlson, who was a native of Nebraska, are his wife, Louise S. Carlson; a son, A. Brice Carlson; a daughter, Mrs. James Hewett, Sierra Madre; and Mrs. Alex Crossman Jr., of Midland, Mich., and nine grandchildren.

School to Offer Education Film

The Committee for Excellence in Education of Pasadena has developed a 22 minute film, "Excellence in Education," citing the need for continued effort toward better education and containing messages from outstanding educators.

At the request of board Vice President Hugh Colvin, Sierra Madre City School District will present this film following the regular meeting of the board, on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Service Center at Sierra Madre School, 200 N. Hermosa Ave.

Mrs. Minnie Hahn Called by Death

One of the founders of the Friendship Club and a Sierra Madre resident 20 years, Mrs. Minnie Hahn, of 343 Grove, died Monday night. Her husband had preceded her in death in 1953, not long after the couple had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. She was widely known for her church and welfare work. Mrs. Hahn is survived by her son, C. Jacques Hahn, near whom she resided; and two daughters, Mrs. June Merten of Fortuna, Calif., and Mrs. Bonley Clarke of Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Funeral services were at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday, the Rev. Robert N. Schaper of Bethany Church officiating. Interment was in Forest Hills.

Youth Council To Meet Oct. 5

The Youth Coordinating Council will hold its regular monthly meeting on Oct. 5, from 5 to 6 p.m. in the City Council Chambers to begin active work on the various projects they are undertaking.

2 Thefts Reported

Mrs. Haydee Mellor reported to police that her home at 62 Olive was ransacked of several rings and guns. Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart, 75 Esperanza, advised police that gas had been stolen from their car and the latter ransacked.

Youth Will Run City for a Day

Sierra Madre's youth will run the city for a day in the near future.

City Council Tuesday night instructed Assistant City Administrator Thomas Butch to arrange with the Youth Coordinating Council for Youth Day in which the youngsters will fill in as mayor, police chief, city administrator and so on.

Hiestand To Address Young Republicans

Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand of the 21st District will speak before the Foothill Young Republicans and their guests Monday, Oct. 3. The meeting will be at East Pasadena Republican Headquarters, 3684 E. Colorado St., Pasadena, at 7 p.m. Guests are advised to bring their own chairs.

at its own expense, use it mornings for classes, and throw it open to the public afternoons and evenings.

The petition of Jack R. Fratt for a lot split on his property at 295 W. Orange Grove Ave., turned down four times, was again presented. Lester Brand was spokesman for the many citizens present opposing the split. Council allotted two weeks for an effort by Fratt and his opponents to reconcile their differences and report back.

Baby's Death

In addition to his parents, the boy is survived by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Van Winkle of Sierra Madre, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hicks of Puenite.

Graveside services were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Sierra Madre Cemetery, Rev. George W. Lindsay of the Congregational Church officiating.

Democratic Drive

Facts, Not Nostalgia

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS, in its news columns, will continue to print both sides of the question whether to or not to annex our Elementary School District to the Pasadena School District at the special election on Oct. 18. We believe it proper that our news columns should reflect both sides of this months-old controversy.

But this newspaper is of the opinion editorially that the light of logic and common-sense illuminates affirmatively this question and solely and soundly on financial considerations. Bluntly, the taxpayers of this city cannot be shouldered with the heavy assessments they would have to pay if we were to erect our own high school in Sierra Madre.

In this we urge all Sierra Madreans to cast aside any nostalgic, emotional impulse in favor of erecting our own high school much as most of use would like to see this accomplished.

ANY ARGUMENT along this line is, however, not based on sound and sensible financial outlooks. Let's talk finances. Cost of such a school, including the site which we do not now have, would be around $4,000,000, and this is a conservative figure. Sierra Madre cannot bond itself for more than $1,500,000 for such a purpose. And a two-thirds vote of the electorate would be necessary for its approval.

This means that another $2,500,000 would have to be raised. Proponents of such a move say "borrow it from the state." But there is a serious question whether the state would loan Sierra Madre that $2,500,000. And even if it did, such a loan would have to be approved by a two-thirds vote of Sierra Madreans. There is serious doubt of such approval.

Atop this, the city of Sierra Madre—the taxpayers—would have to repay that loan to the state—with interest. You don't borrow such money without paying interest on it.

***
THIS IS the financial aspect of the situation. We already are sending our high school students to Pasadena, and at a moderate cost to the taxpayer. A "yes" vote on annexation simply means a transfer of elementary school authority to the Pasadena School District. In the years ahead it will mean the savings of thousands of dollars to Sierra Madreans.

These are not the days to saddle our taxpayers with an additional loan when another and less costly method, with better educational facilities, is in prospect.

Vote "YES" for Annexation on Oct. 18.

'Yes' on Proposition 15

Southern California, which has close to 10,000,000 of this state's some 15,000,000 inhabitants, is outvoted in the State Senate at Sacramento by more than 28 to 12.

The worst instance of taxation without representation is in our own Los Angeles County with its 6,000,000 people who pay approximately 40 per cent of the state taxes, yet have only one Senate seat as opposed to the North half of the state with a smaller number in population and which pays only one-third of the state taxes, yet has more than 28 Senate seats. Imagine that!

The Bonelli Plan (Proposition 15) would give Los Angeles County seven Senate seats, San Diego County two, and the remainder of the Southern half of the state enough to make up the 20 seats to equal the 20 for the North.

Now, what is wrong with that?

***
THE PLAN also would give the South representation now wholly lacking where it counts. The future welfare and growth of Southern California in obtaining vital water as well as protecting our tax dollars demands a yes vote on Proposition 15.

What's the matter with the proposed equality for South and North in the State Senate?

Nothing so far as the SIERRA MADRE NEWS can see, yet there are newspapers in our own area which claim that now is not the time "to upset the applecart," adding that the Bonelli Plan would do just that.

Nonsense! Why should we continue to permit a minority in the North to make the laws governing the South—without proper Southern representation in the Senate?

Why should we permit expediency to nullify the justice that is due us?

***
WE SHOULDN'T and every citizen in Southern California should rally preponderantly and support such organizations as that fathered by our own John H. Curtis and his Committee of the People For 15—then plunk his vote for Proposition 15 in the ballot box come Nov. 8.

You can find out all about Proposition 15 by phoning Mr. Curtis at ELgin 5-3435 Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Do so.

Our Paper Back Books

Paper back books serve a substantial and intelligent purpose in bringing an amount of good literature at moderate prices to the public. But they have another aspect not so intelligent and above all not so inviting morally to young readers, as may be seen in our own "Little Foothill City of Livability."

This is the invitation to our young people to read books which are a detriment to their morality. Youth is a malleable and immature age when imprints upon their minds can prove indelibly damaging. Such is the case with such books as the unexpurgated version of "Lady Chatterly's Lover" and the "Peyton Place" books, to mention only a few. The contents of each can be irreparably damaging to our youth.

The least our paper back book dealers can do is to keep such books off their racks and under the counter from which vantage point they can be sold to grownups.

For that matter, we can't see why even adults wish to read such trash unless it is to appease their own conscious

AT HEADQUARTERS, the "Republikids" swing into action for Nixon and Lodge. Georgia Cason distributes banners and buttons to David Cason, Chris Carlson, Matti Cason and Craig McCoy, all good, loyal Republicans.

Lee Shippey Says . . .

What Do You Think?

Remember the political campaigns in which we all worried about "The Forgotten Man?" Well, there's no such animal this year. Sometimes we get so swamped with political mail we'd like to be forgotten for a while.

***
JUST THINK of being able to press a button in California and sending an Atlas missile, with its atomic warhead, to kill strangers 9,000 miles away. How thrillingly civilized the world is getting!

When we were savages armed with bows and arrows we could kill only one enemy at a time, and could not even scratch anyone 100 yards away.

No wonder man is getting so proud of himself that instead of bowing to his God he merely gives a perfunctory nod once a week.

BUT MISSILES and Sputniks and satellites haven't yet carried the whole world into outer space. I think we should take pride in the fact that the other day an audience of more than 5,000 jammed the bowl in San Diego's Balboa Park to hear 1,600 child musicians, ranging from 7 to 15 years of age, play as many as 90 pianos at a time in perfect harmony.

I doubt that New York or Boston could get out a bigger crowd than that for an afternoon piano concert. To me that seems proof that the more materialism crowds us on every side the more many persons realize the necessity of cultivating the arts and the finer things of life.

***
RECALLING how difficult it is to get young children to swallow a small capsule, it awes me to read that a missile fired from Vandenberg Air Force Base soared 1,200 miles into space and then released a capsule weighing 800 pounds. . . But I hope Mr. K. had a hard time swallowing that.

BETTER BE specific the next few days. If you ask: "Who, do you think, is going to win?" you may expect the answer to be Kennedy or Nixon but probably it will be Pittsburgh or the Yankees.

For many Americans, the World Series will eclipse politics for a few days—and that just goes to show how wrought up we can get over something which really affects us very little.

Except to the players and those who bet, it won't make a nickel's worth of difference to millions of us howling fanatics who wins the World Series.

And though I have heard many solemn warnings that unless a certain candidate won grass would grow in the streets, while if he won there would be two chickens in every pot, two cars in every garage, I never have met a political promoter who would sell even one chicken neck without security, nor one warner of doom who would sell you his home for a dollar less because his side lost.

It is good for us to cheer for our favorites, but America will march on, no matter who wins.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

52 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 25, 1908—Will Tufts returned Monday from his home at El Centro and will live with his grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Tufts, while attending Throop this year.

Mrs. J. A. Osgood and Miss Etta Dickson attended the rally of the English Department of the YWCA at the new building in Los Angeles. While there they heard Miss Irene Wardley, a former Sierra Madre girl, sing.

Manager Ross at the Mt. Wilson Hotel, and Chester Huston returned Monday from a four-day trip to the back country. On Thursday, they started with a score of burros and horses which they left at Bailey Flats to graze until the snow makes it necessary to bring them in. Then they went on to Alder Creek and down the Tujunga, coming out at Switzer's Camp. They covered about 75 miles on the trip and found some exceedingly rough riding in places.

***
21 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Oct. 6, 1939—Dr. R. C. Simpson, Charles Klunk, Rudolph Hartman and William L. Burr will attend the Kiwanis Convention in Oakland Oct. 11-14 as delegates of the local club.

Appointment of Sierra Madre's postmaster lies between Ray O. Caulkin, incumbent, Gordon Felts and R. H. Behrens. They finished one, two, three in the qualifying examinations held on June 27, it was announced this week.

Miss Ella Shepard Bush, nationally known miniature painter, received word Sunday that her exhibit, a miniature of her mother, received first prize at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona.

Mrs. A. C. Cain, 71 E. Alegria, has returned from a two weeks' vacation at Hermosa Beach.

***
10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 28, 1950—A kick-off dinner, Thursday, Oct. 12, will signal start of a two-week campaign to help finance construction of Trinity Presbyterian Church new building, the church finance committee announced this week. Site of the new sanctuary and church plant is the southeast intersection of Sierra Madre Blvd. and Hastings Ranch Dr.

Anyone for Football?

Californians, as a rule, will not be traveling to the world series this fall—the Dodgers and the San Francisco Giants have failed us. Like Mudville, our mighty heroes have struck out—the series will be in the East.

But that is baseball for you. As Babe Ruth once said, "You're a hero today; a bum tomorrow." We still have an affection for our "Bums," however, and the eternal hopefulness of the baseball fan that next year will be a different story.

Anyone for football?

Behind The Scenes In Business

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK — Development of new products and methods of making them is the prime goal of American industry, according to the American Management Association, which has just completed a nationwide survey of key industries.

The association's findings show that 402 corporations representative of American industry will spend an average of 10.7 per cent more this year to develop and make new products than they did in 1959. The corporations spent an average 3.7 per cent of sales for product development last year, the leaders being electronics (7.7 per cent), instruments and control equipment (6.1 per cent), and pharmaceuticals (5.7 per cent).

Corporations covered in the association's report represented 26 industry groups, of which 65 per cent increased their budgets while only 7 per cent cut them.

MAN BITES DOG—It's no secret that the electric and gas industries compete for the same markets, certainly where the home appliance and equipment public is concerned. This gives a sort of "man bites dog" aspect to the news that even electrical appliances are made with the aid of gas industrial equipment.

In fact, natural gas has become indispensable in the manufacture of practically all items of consumer goods. Whether you're reading this at home, in your office or on a commuter train, have a quick look at your surroundings.

It's a safe bet that the flooring, wood and metal work, glass, paint, upholstery, fittings—even the clothes you're wearing and paper and ink of your newspaper or magazine—were touched by at least one industrial gas process somewhere during production. In many instances, gas was used not only for heat treatment but it became an actual ingredient of the end product, as in the case of glass or ceramic tile.

LAST YEAR, according to Robert C. LeMay, chairman of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association's industrial gas equipment division, industries of all types used more than 45 billion therms of natural gas, or more than half of the total sold by all utilities throughout the nation.

Reasons for the growth of natural gas as a processing tool: it helps produce a better product because it responds to automatic control faster than any other fuel and it burns cleaner; it also is more economical. Gas equipment takes up less industrial space and no fuel tanks or bins are required because gas is piped in and paid for only as it is used.

***
THINGS TO COME—Hospital patients no longer are dependent upon a nurse to adjust their beds; a new electronic pushbutton control. The simple, attractively styled bed may be adjusted within seconds. . . . Latest things in dolls will be a Christmas number which comes with paste-on measable casts and splints and I.e.s, crutches, removable casts and splints and bandages.

***
FABRICS FOR BRITAIN—British garment manufacturers are buying more U.S. cotton and synthetic fabrics since their government eased import restrictions during the last year. They purchased a total of 10 million square yards of U. S. cloth in the first half of this year, compared with 400,000 square yards in the same period of 1959. The fabrics are put in use primarily in such items as summer dresses, sport shirts and raincoats.

***
BITS O' BUSINESS—Telephone companies in some areas are now offering free wiring for houses under construction, contending that advance wiring cuts installation costs, and makes a neater job. Americans are developing a large appetite for peanuts. They ate 728 million pounds in the marketing year ended July 1, establishing a record.

***
Louis Arthur Hansen, 580 N. Sierra Madre Blvd., Pasadena, died unexpectedly in his home Monday following a heart attack. He was 60 years old and a resident of California for the past 15 years. Mr. Hansen was associated with his brother, Carl, who owns the local Ford agency. A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Masonic Order and of the Rotary Club.

Advanced First Aid Class Will Start on Oct. 3

Watch on the Potomac . . .

Mister 'K', Nixon and Kennedy

By Robert G. Spivack

WASHINGTON — THE SOVIET "CANDIDATE"—Nikita Krushchev is too clever a politician not to realize what his presence in the United States is doing to our political campaign.

He may regard Vice President Richard M. Nixon as a "grocery clerk," but the overall effect of K's determination to attend the U.N. session at this time is to help the man of whom he apparently speaks so scornfully.

That Nixon has seen fit to capitalize on K's visit will come as a surprise to no one; that's par for the course in politics—just as Jack Kennedy has sought to turn the so-called "religious issue" to his advantage in the big cities of the North.

But since Krushchev undoubtedly has special reasons for injecting himself into the American political campaign, his aims and motives ought to be examined carefully in an atmosphere as free as possible from 1960 domestic politics.

***
THE STARTING point in any examination of K's motives must be this: How does it help Soviet Russia? And after that, how does it help K himself in the struggle for influence over the world Communist movement, in which he is now engaged with the Red Chinese?

The "idea" American President, from K's point of view, would be one who takes at face value all Soviet professions of peace, good intentions and hopes of freeing the world from "capitalist" enslavement. We have not had such a man on the scene since 1948 when

Henry A. Wallace, for awhile, allowed himself to become a captive of the Communists in the Progressive Party. (Wallace, of course, in time saw the light and even favored Eisenhower's election eventually.)

Like all directors, K insists on blind obedience and sublime faith from those he regards as lesser men. Since neither Kennedy nor Nixon fits that category the Soviet czar must apply different standards to the candidates. The question that he must resolve is which will prove the harder competitor in the struggle for the support of those undecided people who have not yet chosen between Democracy and Communism. At stake are not only huge continents, Asia, Africa and South America, but also the minds of millions of men and women.

Will Nixon be the tougher competitor? Or Kennedy?

***
THE UNDECIDED AMERICAN—The answer to the overriding question of which candidate can best deal with Soviet Russia is slow in coming. Kennedy and Nixon are starting to come to grips with it, but both are being wary and moving cautiously.

Each is well aware that one slip in one speech that might take five minutes could undo all their efforts over all these years to attain the Presidency.

Of course, if neither man convinces the public that he is competent to handle the "big issue," then we may well witness the largest stay-at-home "protest" we have seen in a long time.

***
IN THE LAST few days

both Nixon and Kennedy have begun to unfold his strategy for handling the Communists. Kennedy made three general suggestions:

***
Military—He favors funds and authority "to give us a nuclear capacity second to none . . . and add conventional forces so strong and mobile they can stamp out brushfire war before it spreads."

***
Non-Military—working with our allies to establish through the U.N. regional development plans for each underdeveloped area of the world and "above all, treating those nations not as customers . . . but as partners in building a stronger and more peaceful world community."

Home Front—The President much launch "an all-out attack on poverty in this prosperous country," plus a higher minimum wage, better social security, more slum clearance and a "better break" for minority groups in the way of wages and working conditions.

Nixon, thus far, has been somewhat more general. He acknowledges that dealing with the Soviet Union is the No. 1 problem that concerns voters. But at Bay City, Mich., he spent most of his time telling his listeners that Kennedy's attributes are immaturity, lack of judgment, indecisiveness, naivete and inexperience. These are picturesque adjectives, but they still don't tell us what the Vice President would do about K.

Both candidates will have to be more specific if they are to inspire voter confidence.

Your Congressman . . .

Truth About Minimum Wage Legislation

By Edgar W. Hiestand
Representative 21st District,
California

The story of why the Congress did not pass minimum wage legislation has been twisted and warped out of factual shape. The story unfolded behind closed doors and perhaps that is the reason for the untruths.

As a member of the House-Senate Conference Committee on Wage Legislation, I was behind the closed doors. Only members of the conference were allowed in the discussions, of course, but I thought this week's column might provide a keyhole view of the proceedings.

By refusing to compromise, Senator John Kennedy denied a 15 per cent increase to presently covered workers, numbering almost 24 million. Moreover, his unyielding position means an additional 1.4 million workers will not be given wage benefits!

BECAUSE he couldn't get his Senate bill rammed through the conference, he picked up his ball and bat and went home. What he hasn't told the public is that his proposed measure, boosting the minimum to $1.25 and increasing coverage by four million, would have hurt many people he said he wanted to help.

As I said on the House floor on June 30, such a move adds to the plight "of the marginal worker . . . many thousands of them would be put out of work. The tragedy is, those marginal workers cannot get other jobs."

Cost of production, as specialists pointed out, was sure to rise out of such a plan.

Church News

Shepherd of the Hills To Observe Rally Day and World Communion Sunday

Rally Sunday and World Communion Sunday will take place Sunday, Oct. 2, at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 35 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre.

Rally Day at 9 a.m. marks the beginning of a new year for the Sunday School. New teachers will meet their new classes, perfect attendance awards will be presented, and the entire school will form a cross in front of the altar to receive Rally Day buttons.

Parents and the entire congregation and friends are invited. The new superintendent, Mrs. John A. Sewall, Arcadia, will be in charge, with Mrs. W. D. Boone, Arcadia, as pianist and Bible lady. The missions topic will be given by Rollo S. Pickford Jr., chairman of the Christian Education Committee.

The communion service at 10:10 a.m. will feature the sermon, "When God Visits You," by the pastor, the Rev. Ray E. Hansen. Basing his remarks on Jesus' merciful act of bringing a widow's son back to life, as recorded in Luke 7: 11-16, the pastor will assert, "It is the love of God for the life of each person that caused Him to send Jesus into the world, so that we might have the abundant life God desires for each of us."

How to appreciate this more fully and to enjoy life as God intends us to do, will be brought out in the sermon.

Jewish Deaf To 'Hear' Yom Kippur Rites

Ancient chant of "Kol Nidre" will be "heard" by Jewish deaf from all over the Southland at sundown Friday at inauguration of the first sign language Yom Kippur service in the history of Los Angeles Judaism.

The unique and colorful ritual will be held in an auxiliary chapel of the Wilshire Blvd. Temple at 636 S. Hobart Blvd.

Plans for worship by the deaf on the Day of Atonement, holiest day on the Jewish religious calendar, were announced by Rabbi Solomon F. Kleinman, western regional director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

HE SAID the Union, representing 605 Reform temples in the nation, is establishing regular services for the Southland's estimated 700 Jewish deaf as a project of its local Sisterhoods, with Mrs. Louis Winer as chairman. The program may be expanded nationally.

Church Plans Many Events This Sunday

A number of church events are scheduled for Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr. this Sunday.

At 9:15 a.m. the Sunday School will observe Rally Day. New pupils will be enrolled and all pupils will be assigned to their classes for the new Sunday School year.

To be formally installed as the members of the instruction staff for the new year will be the following: Mrs. Robert Osti, Mrs. Marcus Silvera, Miss Esther Ashby, Miss Julie Hesse, Miss Sandra Bock, Miss Ruth Herzberg, Mrs. Kenneth Vogel, Mrs. J. Weatherford, Mrs. J. Leehy.

In charge of the Bible departments will be David Goetsch, Mr. Don Misch and Dr. Walter Schroeder. Rev. Hesse is the instructor of 20-member Junior Confirmation department.

In the 10:30 Church Worship Hour, the pastor will present a second sermon on "The Holy Scriptures" under the theme, "The Use of the Holy Scriptures."

AT 3 O'CLOCK, Sunday School pupils and their parents, members and friends of the congregation will gather at Farnsworth Park in Altadena for the annual church picnic.

Neal Ladwig, president of Faith Church, is in charge of the arrangements. Games and contests are being planned by the church's young people's group, the Walther Leaguers.

Directing the 5 o'clock congregational pot-luck supper will be ladies of the Mission Aid. Attendants are asked to bring their own table service; punch and ice cream will be supplied by the committees.

'Yom Kippur' Services at Beth Israel

At the Foothill Jewish Community Center Temple Beth Israel, 221 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre, Rabbi Charles W. Steckel will conduct the "Yom Kippur" or Day of Atonement Services on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, and Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Rabbi will deliver the fourth and fifth sermons in his series of five Holy Day Lectures.

Cantor Solomon Edelman will chant the "Kol Nidre" and the Holy Day Liturgies, assisted by Mrs. C. Towner at the organ.

"Yiskor" or Memorial Services will be held Saturday morning about 11 o'clock.

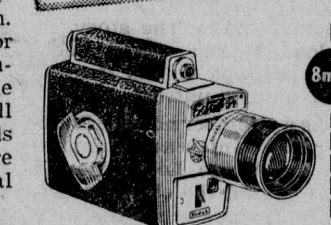

How to appreciate this more fully and to enjoy life as God intends us to do, will be brought out in the sermon.

Announcing the 1961 Ford...
Beautifully proportioned to the CLASSIC
LOOK

The 1961 Ford Galaxie
Club Victoria—beautifully built to take care of people

BEAUTIFULLY BUILT TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF

The 1961 Ford introduces a whole new concept of what a car can do for you... and for itself!

It lubricates itself. New nylon bearings and a newly developed lubricant keep the '61 Ford freshly greased for 30,000 miles. Good-bye grease racks! What's more, it cleans its own oil. The 1961 Ford's Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes.

It adjusts its own brakes. A "mechanical brain" keeps brakes adjusted for the life of the lining.

Rust? Ford's body is specially processed to resist corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath doors.

Ford takes care of itself on the turnpike, too, with a new 390-cu. in. Thunderbird Special V-8 that has all the punch you'll ever need. The 352 Thunderbird Special V-8 and 292 Thunderbird V-8 thrive on regular gas. And, for top economy, you can choose the '61 Mileage Maker Six.

This is the 1961 Ford... beautifully proportioned to the Classic Ford Look... beautifully built to take care of itself.

Additional Church News

Dr. Barnhart Topic 'Secret Of Peace'

The Santa Anita Church of Religious Science announces that at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday Dr. Ethel Barnhart will discuss "Secret Peace." The "Peace that passeth all understanding can be ours as we daily direct our thoughts within to that point of contact where we realize our unity with God, the Source of all Peace." There will be child care.

A meeting open to the public is held each Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, during October.

Wednesday mornings at 10:30 o'clock a class in Bible study meets and all are welcome.

TWO SPECIAL dates on the October calendar are the 9th and the 11th, 7:30 p.m., when Brother Mandus, of the World Healing Crusade of London, England, will speak. Brother Mandus is known and loved the world over and his visits are always inspiring events. The public is invited.

Dedicated teachers instruct classes in the Junior Church at 11 a.m., for children pre-school through Junior High. The Youth Activity meets every Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Dial-For-Prayer any time of the day or night, Hillcrest 7-6162.

Church Gains Building Site

Escrows have been completed and Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church now owns the three-acre church site at the northwest intersection of Santa Anita Ave. and Foothill Blvd., just over the Sierra Madre line in Arcadia.

Meanwhile preparations to build the new church continue under the direction of Pastor Ray E. Hansen and the building committee. Herbert Chambers was chairman of the site committee. The congregation now worships in the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Capt. J. A. Obermeyer

Obermeyer In Top Navy Design Post

Navy Capt. Jack A. Obermeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obermeyer of 440 N. Sunnyside Ave., Sierra Madre, and husband of the former Miss Joan Grant of Nevada City, Calif., is serving as commanding officer and director of the David W. Taylor Model Basin in Carderock, Md.

The David Taylor Model Basin is the Navy's testing laboratory for ship hulls. He reported to the Carderock Aug. 30 from Washington, D.C. where he was director of the Ship Design Division.

Following graduation from the Naval Academy in 1937, he joined the USS Louisville and in April, 1939, was detached from that cruiser for post-graduate instruction at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Cambridge. Capt. Obermeyer completed the course there in October, 1941, receiving the degree of master of science.

Sunday School Year Will Open

The new Sunday School year of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr., will open on Sunday, Oct. 2, with the annual Rally

Sierra Madre Girl Badly Injured as Car Plunges 150 Feet Over Steep Cliff

Internal injuries which St. Luke Hospital describes as serious were suffered by Phyllis Moore, 22, a cocktail waitress, of 651 Chaparral St., Sierra Madre, when the car she drove plunged 150 feet over a cliff on Chaney Trail, Altadena.

George William Lowry, 27, of 1401 N. Arnel Dr., Covina, owner of the car and riding with Miss Moore was taken to the hospital. A rescue crew of Altadena sheriff's deputies, Altadena Mountaineers and California Highway Patrolmen brought the injured woman up the almost vertical cliff in a stretcher.

CHP Officer Orv Solly said Miss Moore was northbound on Chaney Trail when she failed to negotiate a curve. Both Miss Moore and Lowry, an engineering draftsman, were thrown from the car, which was badly damaged.

Rescue Training Course Completed

Rex P. Ketter, 188 Auburn Ave., Sierra Madre, has received a graduation certificate from the Los Angeles Civil Defense and Disaster Corps for completion of an intensive 32-hour basic and light rescue training course. Ketter, who is employed by the Los Angeles County Flood Control division, received instructions in fire and panic control, first aid, stretcher lashing, horizontal and vertical lowering, search and tagging of casualties and knot tying.

Day, according to Supt. Donald Frokjer.

In preparation, the Sunday School staff held its organizational and final programming meeting last evening.

The Rally Day session will be augmented by the church picnic to be held in the afternoon, culminating in a congregational picnic supper to which all pupils and their parents, members, and friends of the congregation are invited.

Dr. Peter Fay Is Promoted

Dr. Peter W. Fay of 400 Churchill Rd., Sierra Madre, is one of 25 educators on the Caltech faculty advanced from assistant professors to associate professors, according to an announcement by Dr. Lee A. DuBridge, president.

Dr. Fay was the principal speaker at last spring's first annual banquet of the Sierra Madre Friends of the Library.

Sierra Madeans To Aged Confab

Three Sierra Madre residents are invited by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to be among the 3,000 Californians expected to attend the Conference on Aging in Sacramento Oct. 3 and 4. The three are Mrs. Etta Leguinn, 169 W. Montecito; Mrs. John Paton, 647 Manzanita, and H. Smith.

Polio Clinics On Saturdays

A polio tetanus clinic will be conducted by the Los Angeles County Medical Association at the Rosemead-Foothill Shopping Center, 3629 E. Foothill, starting last Saturday, this week, and continuing each Saturday until further notice. The hours will be 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The clinic is conducted by the Los Angeles Medical Association in an endeavor to make certain all persons are inoculated against polio and tetanus. A charge of $1 a shot is made. Parents of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and the Foothill Area are urged to have their children inoculated, either for the first time, or to complete the series.

Reflections While You Shop!

By Lisa Churchill

It's catching! The space age, I mean. Now even the Hoover Vacuum Cleaner Co. has entered into a new aspect of design. Gone is the lowly, mundane, if practical cleaner. Now you may do your cleaning with sky blue, pink, gold or olive green globes gliding behind you, or streamlined upright models to match any decor.

You may see them (and buy them) at the Sierra Madre Hardware Company where I positively gawked in amazement at the improved new designs.

Tom Schwartz assures me they even clean better.

AND WHILE I was there I glanced over at the pyrex shelves. Where have I been all these years? In our house we are still using good old-fashioned plain hardy glass pyrex, and what did I discover—pyrex has gone space happy too.

The latest interesting shapes and sparkling colorful designs will brighten the cooking chores of the newest bride to the lady celebrating her golden wedding day.

It's a good thing for my bank account that I didn't have my check book with me. I read an article the other day about "Compulsive Buying," something like being an alcoholic, I think, and frankly unless you're in the market for some delectable, delightful, divine kitchenware, stay out of the S. M. Hardware Company, or you may become a "compulsive buyer" overnight.

HOW DO YOU like those zany Slim Jim cards on sale at Mrs. Perry's Stationers? Every time I go in to see her about advertising, I just naturally have to see what the latest odd-ball effort in the card line is.

The one I liked this week carried the message "I used to be conceited" and upon opening the card, finished with "But now I'm impossible!"

Practical jokers (the nice kind) must have a ball with the assortment available. As for me, I love to read them, but my conservative New England background still keeps me sending out the more normal kind.

Mrs. Perry has a large assortment of those, too, for normal people like you and (?) me.

WATCHED the Miss America selection on TV Saturday night. The new "puppy dog hair style" modeled by one of the girls made us feel happy.

Our French poodle "Pete" is up-to-the-minute in hair styling. Only Pete has been wearing his that way for several months. I always knew the French were fashion conscious, this obviously proves it.

Arcadia AAUW Schedules Two Sessions

"How to Select Stocks intelligently" will be the subject of a talk by Miss Jean Stephenson, customers' representative from Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith at the first meeting of the Status of Women Study Section of the American Association of University Women, Arcadia branch.

Members interested in learning more about how to invest capital in common stocks are invited to join the discussion to be held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Chilton, 1101 Hugo Reid Dr., Arcadia, on Thursday, Oct. 6, at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Robert E. Paradise and Mrs. John J. Schriver, both past presidents of the branch, will lead the discussion on the pros and cons of "Federal Aid to Education" Tuesday night, Oct. 4, at 8 o'clock.

A joint meeting of the higher education and elementary and secondary education study sections will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Winfield Hartranft Jr., 41 Canon Ave., Sierra Madre.

Members are asked to call Mrs. Hartranft, EL. 5-0157, or Mrs. William E. Snyder, EL. 5-9101 for reservations.

S.M. Coordinating Council Will Continue to Support Youth Coordinating Group

A Coordinating Council can be a dynamic force for the betterment of a community by bringing together, through membership in the Council, such diversified organizations as men's and women's service clubs, PTA, youth groups, church, veterans, merchants, welfare groups, etc.

The Council enables these groups to avoid duplication in their projects, to participate in projects too big for a single organization to undertake or when no other group is willing to take on a project. It also is an annex of information for the community.

Groups represented and working together in a Council develop cooperation and coordination through study of basic community needs and can plan the best approach and action to meet these needs to bring about changes and improvements.

THE SIERRA MADRE Coordinating Council represents a fine example in the past of community accomplishments as a coordinating group. But the Council can meet its potential only when it is a fully supported organization—when groups send representatives regularly to each meeting and then returns to their group with a report of the meetings.

Sierra Madre Coordinating Council meets once a month on the first Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Sierra Madre School. This year the Council, under President G. Norman Kennedy, is planning to continue its sponsorship of the Youth Coordinating Council. This youth group, with adult assistance, takes part in community projects and plans the teen dances which were so successful during the summer. Their next dance will be a Halloween Teen Dance, with Civic Club members assisting.

There also is a study under way for a combined fund drive for Sierra Madre. This would in no way compete with community organizations such as Community Chest but would be an expansion of it to make fund drives more efficient for all concerned in Sierra Madre.

TIMELY TOO, with 1961, the year for the White House Conference on the Aged, is the Council survey on a program for our senior citizens. And the Council compiles the Community Calendar published weekly in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS to avoid duplication of meeting times and events in the community.

The Coordinating Council needs your support and membership. Join now and attend meetings regularly. The next Council meeting is Tuesday evening, Oct. 4.

Sally Glenn Has Exhibit at Mart

An exhibit of paintings by Sally Glenn opened recently at the Arcadia Music Mart on Huntington Dr. She has just received first place in watercolor at the Pomona County Fair Art Exhibit, an award of $300.

She is exhibiting 17 paintings in oil, watercolors and pastels in this music store. She exhibits with and is a member of the California Watercolor Society, the Pasadena Society of Artists, the Los Angeles Art Association, the Women Painters of the West and has shown several times at the Los Angeles County Museum Shows.

S.M. Nursery Preschool Talk Tonight

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School invites all interested persons to attend the series of parent education meetings entitled "Your Child in the Preschool" co-sponsored by the Pasadena City College Extended Day Program and the Nursery School.

The second program of the series is scheduled for today (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at which time the school's own 16-millimeter film "Planning Creative Play Equipment" will be shown. This beautiful color film was planned by Mrs. Marjorie Green and produced by UCLA. The discussion following the film will be led by Mrs. John Bush.

ON OCT. 4, Mrs. Olive McVickar will speak on "The Preschooler and Literature." Mrs. McVickar is a teacher for the Extension Division of UCLA. She is a past president of the California State Council of Cooperative Nursery Schools and is a past vice president of the Association of Nursery School Education of Southern California. She has also written many reports for parents magazines, the New York Times and other publications.

During 1958-59 Mrs. McVickar was a Fellow of the American-Scandinavian Foundation in Copenhagen and there carried on a study of art experiences in the Danish Schools.

The series will end on Oct. 13 when Yoland Howell, director of art for the Pasadena City Schools, will speak on "The Preschooler and Art."

All those attending the lectures are invited to stay for refreshments after each meeting.
